

Lloyd Library & Museum News

Did you know that our services have a global reach? The Lloyd Library serves institutions regionally, nationally and internationally. Behind the scenes, Lloyd librarians support remote researchers, who make up nearly half of our clientele. Through the WorldCat interlibrary loan system, the Lloyd Library makes our collections available through document delivery.

Lloyd Website Attracts Visitors Worldwide

Analytics from our new website, launched December 2017, demonstrate our worldwide appeal. Website visitors come from as far away as China and Australia. Canada and South Korea represent the largest number of international visitors. Our domestic visitors hail from 47 of the 50 states, including Hawaii with Ohio, Kentucky and Texas making up the top three.

Medicinal Properties of Yews in History with Michael Vincent

Saturday, March 10, 1-3 p.m.
Lloyd Library & Museum

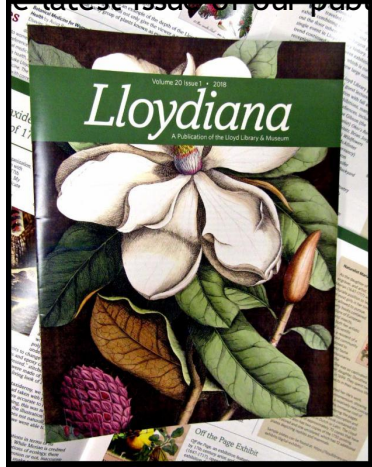

In just over a week, Michael Vincent, Miami University's Curator at the Willard Sherman Turrell Herbarium, comes to the Lloyd to speak on the derivation of medicines from plants, using the story of the discovery and development of an anticancer drug from Pacific Yew.
