

Lloyd Library & Museum News

When thinking of the Lloyd Library, botanical illustrations and scientific research often come to mind. It may come as a surprise to learn that the Lloyd also holds Department of Agriculture reports featuring Victory Gardens during the World Wars. Other topics highlighted include home economics and pest control for small home gardens. View these reports as part of our upcoming exhibition, Garden to Table.

New Children's Book on Maria Sibylla Merian

Just added to our small but notable children's collection is a new book about 17th-century artist and naturalist Maria Sibylla Merian. Newbery Honor-winning author Joyce Sidman explores the extraordinary life and scientific discoveries of Merian, who discovered the truth about metamorphosis and documented the science behind the mystery in this visual biography that features many original paintings by Maria herself.
