Lloyd Library Steps Out of the Stacks for Two FotoFocus Exhibits

Out of the Stacks: Lloyd Inspired Artist Books

September 28 - November 30

A Year on the Edge: A Photographic Narrative of the Edge of Appalachia Preserve

The Lloyd Library is excited to participate in the 2018 FotoFocus Biennial, Open Archive. Joining more than 80 other participating venues throughout Greater Cincinnati, Northern Kentucky, Dayton and Columbus curating photography and lens-based, curated exhibits.

Out of the Stacks is a collection of artists' books created by members of the Cincinnati Book Arts Society using photographic mediums that are based on items from the Lloyd's collections.

Stepping further out of the stacks, Nature Conservancy photographers Rick Connor and TJ Vissing showcase the seasons in A Year on the Edge: A Photographic Narrative of the Edge of Appalachia Preserve.

From Hester Ferguson Henshall, Wildflowers of Florida, Vol. 1. This collection of paintings were an influence on several artist's books in the exhibit.
