

Lloyd Library & Museum News

The Lloyd Library & Museum has a goal to continue to preserve its history, while continuing to grow, connect and make an impact as we meet the needs of today's and tomorrow's audience. To that end, we'd like to know what's important to you. Your reply to these few questions by October 4 is appreciated. Click here for the survey.

Artists-in-Residence Talk Leaves of Plates this Thursday

When: Thursday, September 26, 7-8 p.m.
Where: Lloyd Library & Museum

Spaces are still available for the artist talk by Katie Parker and Guy Michael Davis. Known as Future Retrieval, they are the Lloyd Library & Museum's inaugural Artists-in-Residence. The duo discuss their research into Lloyd collections, how that influenced their work in the studio and the creation of the Leaves of Plates exhibition. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. Reservations required.

United Plant Savers Dedicates Medicinal Plant Center

Congratulations to United Plant Savers on the completion of their new Center for Medicinal Plant Conservation and on celebrating their 25th anniversary. Herbalist and author Steven Foster joined UPS founders Rosemary Gladstar and Paul Strauss for the dedication. Lloyd Library Executive Director Patricia Van Skaik was on hand for this historic day, and spoke with a number of attendees at the event. If you haven't visited the medicinal plant sanctuary in Rutland, OH, it's worth the trip.

Ceramic Studio Tour in October

When: Saturday, October 5, 4-5 p.m.
Where: 4530 W Mitchell Ave,
Cincinnati, OH 45232

Visit the ceramic studio and creative home base of the artist duo and Lloyd Artists-in-Residence Katie Parker and Guy Davis, also known as Future Retrieval. This intimate setting provides the chance to hear about and see the process behind their practice. Free and open to the public. Light refreshments.

Welcome Black Coffee Lounge

The Lloyd would like to welcome our new neighbors, Black Coffee Lounge, to 824 Elm Street in downtown Cincinnati. Lloyd librarians have visited and enjoyed excellent coffee in a great location just a few blocks from the library. Black Coffee also provides a convenient caffeine and meal stop for our visitors and researchers.
