Join the LLOYD
Library and Museum

In existence since the late 1800s, this independent research library and exhibit space is devoted to bringing science, art and history to life. Dynamic programs connect our collections with today's relevant issues.

The mission of the Lloyd Library and Museum is to advocate for education in plant-based science, medicine, conservation, art and history. We provide resources to engage visitors and researchers from the community and around the globe.

Your membership provides...

Your membership is an opportunity to become part of a world class institution that makes an impact on education, research and conservation.

Your membership:

- Preserves and maintains important historical and contemporary resources
- Supports the work of scholars and artists
- Provides educational access to information not readily available to local and global audiences
- Offers broader awareness, unique perspectives and dialog on today's critical issues
- Invigorates the local community by initiating and collaborating on shared projects
- Optimizes technology to bring resources to an offsite audience through digitization, online exhibitions and web streamed programs
- Sustains a place where science and art meet through botanical and natural history

A membership to the Lloyd Library makes a great gift. Consider sharing this treasure with the people in your life.

Member benefits include:

- Subscription to our magazine, Lloydiana
