

Lloyd Library and Museum COVID-19 Visitor Safety Policy

- Research visits are by appointment only by calling (513) 721-3707 or contact@lloydlibrary.org.
- Only 2 research groups of no more than 4 persons each are scheduled at a time.
- All visitors are required to fill out contact/health questionnaire prior to using the facilities.
- Visitors with COVID-19 symptoms will be asked to reschedule visit.
- Face coverings are required.
- All visitors are required to wash their hands or use sanitizer upon arrival.
- Physical distancing practices are in place, including 6 feet distancing and separated furniture. You will be notified of additional precautions when registering.
- One person at a time in the restroom.
- Water fountain is closed. Feel free to bring water bottles.
- You will be provided with writing implements for you to keep.
- Bags and coats must be secured in car, public closet or lockers.

Our commitment to you:

The Lloyd Library follows all COVID-19 protocol required by law and recognized best practices in our industry to provide you with the safest environment possible. Additional sanitizing and practices employed by Lloyd Library personnel, such as quarantining books for 48 hours after their use, are in place. Employees are health screened daily and appropriate measures taken, which may include quarantine of Lloyd employees and impact availability of service.

Exposure to COVID-19 is an inherent risk in any public location where people are present; we cannot guarantee you will not be exposed during your visit. Should we become aware of exposure to COVID-19 at the Lloyd Library, we will notify and cooperate fully with the Cincinnati Health Department.

Please address any concerns or suggestions for improvement to the Patricia Van Skaik, Executive Director, at 513-419-2574 or pvanskaik@lloydlibrary.org.