

Happy Independence Day! Though we're closed today to celebrate, there's lots to discover at the Lloyd Library with our upcoming exhibition and program schedule. Mark your calendars for our opening reception and a fascinating lecture by a top mycologist. Be sure check out our updated gift shop the next time you visit.

Wild/LIFE Opening Reception

When: Friday, July 8, 5-7 p.m.
Where: Lloyd Library

Join us for the opening of Wild/LIFE, a traveling exhibition from the Guild of Book Workers. The closest stop in more than 1,000 miles, the exhibit features 50 works comprised of artists' books and fine bindings. The artwork communicates interpretations of wildlife, the outdoors and depictions of plants and animals. Appreciate the striking craftsmanship and artistic interpretations, accompanied by quotes and interviews from the artists. Light refreshments.

The Secret Lives of Fungi

When: Wednesday, July 20, 7-8 p.m.
Where: In person at the Lloyd Library and also offered virtually

Fungi are weird, fungi are cool, and fungi are beautiful. But how much do we really know about them? For starters, they do much more than just spring up after a rain. They control much of life on our planet and are present everywhere. Britt A. Bunyard, mycologist and editor-in-chief of the journal Fungi, presents fascinating stories and beautiful photos of the amazing fungi featured in his latest book, The Lives of Fungi.

Registration required.
