October is full of fun and exciting events at the Lloyd Library! Join us as we travel the world in our current exhibition, Visions of Nature, and bring together nature, history and photography in our upcoming lecture and workshop. Closer to home, immerse yourself in nature with Rick Conner’s and TJ Vissing’s Ohio nature photography.

Agrarian Mesoamerica Captured in Time

When: Wednesday, October 12, 7-8 p.m.
Where: In person at the Lloyd Library and also offered virtually.

Step into the world of ancient Mesoamerican agriculture with David Lentz, Professor of Biological Sciences at the University of Cincinnati, and learn about his discoveries through the Lloyd Library's photography collections. Dr. Lentz has held positions at the New York Botanical Garden, Chicago Botanic Garden, and the Society for Economic Botany. As a fellow at the Dumbarton Oaks Research Library in Washington, DC since 2021, he is currently researching a book project on ancient Mesoamerican agriculture. Registration required.

Make the Lloyd Your Pre-Blink Destination

The Lloyd will have special hours this Saturday,
October 15, from 12-8 p.m. Visit our FotoFocus exhibition Visions of Nature across Time and Place and enjoy refreshments before attending Cincinnati’s premier art and light event. While you’re out, visit nearby Wash Park Art gallery, open 4-7 p.m., and catch tours and concerts at Music Hall. Click here for details.

Indexing Our Time and Place in Words

When: Saturday, October 22, 10 a.m.-1 p.m.
Where: Lloyd Library

Join author and teacher Annette Januzzi Wick as she prompts participants to define their record through the written word. During this three-hour workshop, participants will be given access to historical views of faraway lands and lush natural images captured in Ohio to inspire their writing. Co-sponsored by Women Writing for (a) Change. $35 tuition. Registration required.

Travel through Time with New Postcards

Just added to the Lloyd gift shop—five new postcard designs featuring vintage photography from around the world at the turn of the 20th century. These unique images capture landmarks and nature from the Cincinnati area to the Caribbean, Egypt and Italy. View these images and more in the Visions of Nature across Time and Place exhibition through November 19.

November 1 is the Deadline to Apply for 2023 Fellowships and Artists-in-Residence
