Visions of Nature across Time and Place Opening Reception

When: Friday, September 30, 5-8 p.m.
Where: Lloyd Library

As a participating venue for the 2022 FotoFocus Biennial World Record, the Lloyd Library's exhibition Visions of Nature Across Time and Place features photography both historical and modern.

Library co-founder Curtis Gates Lloyd captured nature and daily life in the 1890s on his trips to Samoa, Mexico, the Caribbean, Italy, Egypt, and Cincinnati. The Lloyd also hosts breathtaking nature photography by Rick Conner and TJ Vissing, documenting Central Ohio and serving as a record for future generations of our vital natural environment. Free and open to the public. Light refreshments.
