

LLOYD
LIBRARY & MUSEUM

October is American Archives Month, and the Lloyd is celebrating Halloween-style by highlighting movie monsters from our archival collection. Read more below! Our current exhibit, A Foray into Fungi, continues well into November as does our mushroom-related programming. Make sure to register for our upcoming virtual program on fungi-derived drugs and our Fantastic Fungi movie night!

---

Fungi as a Source for Drug Discoveries

When: Wednesday, November 1, 7-8 p.m.

Where: Virtual Program

Have you ever wondered how someone goes about “discovering” a fungal-derived drug in 2023? Starting with penicillin and ending with the antibiotics revolution, fungi may have had one of the biggest impacts on human survival rates in the 20th century. Nicholas Oberlies, PhD, shares how fungi are still used as a source for drug leads, particularly for anticancer drug discovery in a project currently funded by the National Cancer Institute. Registration required.

Register for the Virtual Program

---

Fellowship and Artist-in-Residence Application Deadline is November 1

The deadline is approaching to submit applications for 2024 Curtis Gates Lloyd Fellowships and Artists-in-Residence. The program provides stipends to support research at the Lloyd and requires a project at the end of the award period. For more information, click here.

Fantastic Fungi Movie Night

When: Friday, November 17, 7-8:30 p.m.
Where: Lloyd Library

Join us for a screening of the hit Netflix documentary Fantastic Fungi, an immersive journey into the magical mycelium network beneath our feet, an underground network that can heal and save our planet. Through the eyes of renowned mycologists like Paul Stamets, best-selling authors like Michael Pollan, Eugenia Bone, Andrew Weil and others, this film showcases the beauty, intelligence, and solutions that the fungi kingdom offers. Popcorn will be served! Registration required.

Register for the In-Person Program

Movie Monsters in the Lloyd's Archives

These fantastic beasts in the Lloyd's archival collections come from the pen of cartoonist E. A. Bushnell (1879-1939). Bushnell once worked for The Cincinnati Post and The Cincinnati Times-Star and corresponded with our co-founder John Uri Lloyd--even creating the character 'Doc' based on him. Pictured is a mock-up of King Kong battling dinosaurs, as Bushnell was hired by RKO Pictures to draw publicity for the 1933 movie King Kong.

Support the Lloyd through a Membership or Donation

Lloyd Library & Museum | 513-721-3707 | contact@lloydlibrary.org
917 Plum St.
Cincinnati, OH 45202
Hours: 9:00-4:00, Monday through Friday
and 3rd Saturday of the month
www.lloydlibrary.org

Stay Connected

Explore A Foray into Fungi exhibit through November 18

Lloyd Library & Museum | 917 Plum St., Cincinnati, OH 45202

Unsubscribe aherrlein@lloydlibrary.org

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by bycontact@lloydlibrary.org powered by

Try email marketing for free today!