Gardeners Dig into the Lloyd

The Lloyd welcomed College Hill Gardeners Club for a group visit and tour of the library. Lloyd staff also shared vintage works from our collections with the group, including treasures by early botanists Maria Sibylla Merian and Johann Hieronymus Kniphof. Pictured are our gardener friends with the banner for our current exhibition on houseplants, Welcome to My Jungle.

Pop-up Gardens on the Page

Gardens of Delight is a wonderful example of the design and beauty in pop-up books. Donated by John Deatruck to the Lloyd, this amazing little gem displays both flowers and garden structures--including a working swing--through its three-dimensional pages. The text incorporates poetry on gardens by such luminaries as Percy Bysshe Shelley and Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. See the book in motion here.
