Carol Ann and Ralph V. Haile, Jr. Foundation Awards Grant to the Lloyd Library & Museum for More than Human Medicine

The Lloyd Library & Museum is pleased to announce that it has been awarded a grant from the Carol Ann and Ralph V. Haile, Jr. Foundation to support More than Human Medicine: Honoring the Plants and Animals that Make Treatments Possible, featuring the work of Lloyd's 2025 Artist-in-Residence, Sara Torgison. The Carol Ann and Ralph V. Haile, Jr. Foundation is an independent family foundation dedicated to enhancing the quality of life for residents in our region. They concentrate their efforts and resources in areas about which Carol and Ralph were most passionate: Arts and Culture, Civic and Community, Education, and Human Services. In collaboration with our region's stakeholders, they help lead the way to a strong and vibrant community across ten counties in Ohio, Kentucky, and Indiana. For more information visit www.hailefoundation.org.

Opening this spring, More than Human Medicine is an exhibition and program series that uses art to explore plant and animal contributions to the optimization of human health. Through botanical illustrations dating back to the eighteenth century and original art created by The Lloyd artist-in-residence Sara Torgison, topics such as traditional medicine, modern medical advances and lab research are brought to life and explored through a new lens. Sara Torgison is an interdisciplinary artist specializing in ceramics and fiber art. Her work blends media to highlight fragile surfaces and marginal spaces.

The Carol Ann and Ralph V. Haile, Jr. Foundation grant to The Lloyd Library & Museum will aid in the production and installation of the exhibition. Grant money will also support an opening reception and several free programs offered virtually or filmed and posted on The Lloyd's YouTube channel to provide greater accessibility and to spread the reach of the programs nationally and globally. Watch for more details at www.lloydlibrary.org.

Located at 917 Plum St. in Cincinnati, Ohio, The Lloyd is open 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday through Friday and the third Saturday of the month. For more information or to schedule a visit, contact The Lloyd at (513) 721-3707 or email contact@lloydlibrary.org or visit LloydLibrary.org.
